Looks like I can get into Minot at 12:42 pm Monday, then leave Minot Wedn at 6:45 am. That will work better with the travel schedule.

Minot would be better, we could pick you up.
Flights in and out of western ND get booked up at certain times of the week.

I think I will look at flights to Minot, since then I will be close to Sawyer. It is hard to find flights arriving before 1 pm.

2:40 does not leave much time to do much more than drive on Monday.

I had planned on viewing the SDS facility on Monday, which is about 2 hours from Bismarck, close to when I would expect they close.

Newtown is another hour and a half from Sawyer, or 2.5 hours from Bismarck.

If you can get here earlier, it would be better. there is a lot of miles and a lot of sites.

Also, what time on Wednesday is your flight out?

Hi Steve,

Yes I am coming. I arrive at 2:40 pm Monday. If we need to meet Monday afternoon, I can check to see if I can get there earlier.

Hi Brenda, I am working on our oilfield waste tour. Are you still coming and do you know when you might arrive? Edmund Baker with the tribe is open for a meeting - sounds like the afternoon of May 12 might be the best.

Let me know of your schedule.

Thanks
